

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

AgVenture Gold Club

What is the AgVenture Gold Club?

The AgVenture Gold Club is a first-ever yield contest for AgVenture customers. Throughout harvest, we will celebrate and reward our farmers who achieve outstanding yields with AgVenture® brand products.

How do I enter the yield contest?

Entries into the yield contest can be made by customers or AgVenture Dealers on behalf of their customers at AgVenture.com/GoldClub. Entries are accepted now through November 30, 2025.

Does my yield entry need to be verified?

Yes. At the time of entry, customers will be asked to enter the name of the company where their seed was purchased along with plot details as a way to verify the accuracy of the entry. Claims may be verified with the AgVenture seller.

After the time of entry, Customers will be invited to email a photo of their field. By doing so, this does not improve odds of winning.

What products can I enter? / Am I eligible for the contest?

CORN

One yield contest category is to promote AgVenture brand corn products planted in 2025.

Below are the requirements in order to enter this category:

- Minimum of 20 acres (16 units) of AgVenture brand corn seed for one hybrid must be planted.
- AgVenture corn seed must be planted a minimum of 12 rows into the field; no outside rows permitted in the yield measurement.
- Yield claim must be collected over 20 acres. Upon submission, grower must provide proof of their claim by:
 - Declaring their AgVenture sales representative (employee, dealer, etc.) is a witness to the claim, or
 - Uploading a yield monitor report.

SOYBEANS

One yield contest category is AgVenture brand soybean products planted in 2025.

Below are the requirements in order to enter this category:

- Minimum harvest of 20 acres of AgVenture brand soybean seed for one variety.
- All yield measurements will be in dry bushels per acre (adjusted to 13% moisture).

How do I win? / What are the prizes?

Every customer who enters the yield contest will win a t-shirt. One t-shirt per customer, regardless of total number of contest entries. Additionally, a total of two Gold Club Champions will be declared (one per category) and a total of ten Gold Club Regional Winners will be declared (number varies by category – see below).

AgVenture Sellers will also be awarded a prize for customers who are named a Gold Club Champion or Regional Winner.

What are my odds of winning?

There is no random element involved in the evaluation of Submissions. This is a Contest of skill and the ability to win a prize will depend on the skill of the entrant to grow a high yield crop on their farm and then in competition against the high skill of competitive growing farms also participating in the Contest. The chances of being selected depend upon the skill and management practices of the farmer and variables affecting crop yields, such as product selection, weather and disease and pest pressure.
